CU SERVICE NETWORK ANNOUNCES NEW CFO & HEAD OF OUTSOURCED ACCOUNTING SERVICES

Lakewood, CO (January 17, 2018) – CU Service Network is pleased to announce that they have selected Branda Gilmore to fill the role of CFO and lead their outsourced accounting service, which has recently expanded from coast to coast. She has been active in credit union arena for decades and will be a celebrated addition to the growing service.

Gilmore has held numerous executive roles in credit unions throughout Denver, and most recently has been running her own credit union strategic accounting company. She was also Chairman of the Rocky Mountain CUES Council for nearly a decade, so is a familiar face among credit unions in the region. Her specific focus on strategic efficiencies will strengthen CU Service Network’s popular outsourced CFO service, which she will head.

Gilmore comments, “I am very excited to be a part of a great team and organization that is so forward-thinking. I love that I will continue to work with multiple credit unions with our CU Works Accounting product. This is a great resource for credit unions that allows them to focus on their members while knowing their accounting is being handled in a seamless fashion.”

Indeed, the “CFO to Go” product is hugely popular among credit unions, and finding an individual with the skill set to help credit unions’ with a variety of needs was imperative.

“Branda has the knowledge and extensive financial experience we are looking for to help lead our organization to continued success. She will position us to serve our member credit unions with excellence,” said Doug Burke, CEO of CU Service Network.
