CU SERVICE NETWORK EXPANDS BOARD TO INCLUDE NATIONAL PRESENCE

Lakewood, CO (November 6, 2017) – CU Service Network is excited to announce they’ve expanded their Board from 8 seats to 11 to accommodate the growing presence across the country. Three additional Board Members have been appointed to their team.

Mike Merryman, CEO of D.C.-based Interior FCU, has been appointed to the board; his membership is especially important due CUSN’s recent growth along the East Coast. Merryman is an outsourced compliance client of CUSN, and reflects the company’s monumental shift from shared branching-focused to Back Office outsourcing-focused. He has been involved in the credit union movement for nearly three decades and will bring a strong voice to the table.

Randy Mims, CEO of Golden, CO-based CU of the Rockies has been appointed to the board as well. Along with Merryman, he also represents a voice of CU Service Network’s Back Office product line; his credit union is an outsourced accounting client. Mims has been involved in credit unions nearly his whole life and brings a wealth of knowledge to the team.

Scott Ferndelli, CEO of Denver-based Arapahoe CU, has also been appointed to the board. Scott’s background is in finance, having served as credit union CFO for many years. He has over two decades of credit union experience.

Mike Williams, Chairman of the CU Service Network Board and CEO of Colorado CU writes, “As CU Service Network continues to expand their business into new regions, it made sense that the board reflect this growth. I am excited to work with our new board members and the diversity they bring to the group.”
