CU SERVICE NETWORK ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBER

Lakewood, CO (June 11, 2018) – CU Service Network is excited to announce that a new member has been elected to their board. Carrie Langgard, CFO of $360M, Denver-based Sooper Credit Union, was elected at the CUSO's Annual Meeting on May 16.

Langgard has been the CFO of Sooper Credit Union since 2014 and has been in the financial industry for over 25 years. At Sooper CU, she serves as a member of the Executive Leadership Team and oversee the areas of Finance, Accounting, Payment Services, Information Technology and the Member Contact Center. She has worked to bring about change to Sooper CU to increase profitability, reduce operating expenses and successfully grow the organization.

Langgard comments, "CU Service Network has provided invaluable services to credit unions and our members for decades. I am honored and privileged to serve on the Board alongside the talented individuals that contribute to the success of such an impactful organization." She joins a diverse Board of eight other credit union executives, spreading from Washington, D.C. to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

"We are excited to have Carrie join the board as she has years of valuable experience and can help us define our future. I look forward to working with her," said Doug Burke, CEO of CU Service Network. Indeed, Carrie is a strong supporter of our Accounting Assistance service, and sees the value in outsourcing various functions to make credit unions more efficient.
